1. TAN Cheng, former chief of the Peiping police, has been transferred to Hong Kong as the new head of the Chinese Communist Military Control Commission.*
2. HSU Chien-kuo is head of the Chinese Communist North China Police, with headquarters in Tientsin. He is thought to be out of town, as meetings are being held by proxy.
3. Trade in Tientsin is at a standstill because of the lack of communications.

Comment. The establishment of a Communist Military Control Commission for Hong Kong at this time is unlikely. Possibly TAN has been sent in another capacity, or the Military Control Commission is being established for some area in South China.
